

City of South Fulton

WHEREAS, City of South Fulton could not function without volunteers who give their time and effort to help others through their church, community organizations, service clubs, schools and charitable organizations and other worthy endeavors;

WHEREAS, volunteers are motivated by the simple satisfaction of helping their fellow citizens and making their community a better place to live;

WHEREAS, Mrs. Victoria Rogers is a self-described organizer, connector and problem-solver in anything she does and launched the South Fulton Sews group to tap into the generosity and kindness of others;

WHEREAS, the South Fulton Sews Masks Nextdoor group was started in response to a need to make personal protective equipment masks to protect first responders on the frontline fighting the COVID-19 pandemic;

WHEREAS, at the onset of the pandemic a clarion call for help was made and people across metro Atlanta responded;

WHEREAS, this group has sewed masks for hospital staff, police officers and fire personnel and the homeless;

WHEREAS, 100+ masks were made for City of South Fulton first responders because individuals stepped forward and donated fabric Dr. Joyce Sligh, Ms. Parks and Ms. Patton to support the three sewers who worked diligently to deliver the masks – Victoria Rogers, Cavelle Jobs, Nikki Helms;

WHEREAS, their efforts were supported by the Hayes Family (cut fabric), Jackie Slade (labels and packaged), Stacie McLaughlin and the Rogers Family;

WHEREAS, during the COVID-19 pandemic we have witnessed wonderful acts of kindness and their efforts have not gone unnoticed and are appreciated by the city council and the first responders;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor and the City Council of the City of South Fulton hereby proclaim Friday, September 4, 2020 as “South Fulton Sews Day” in the City of South Fulton, Georgia.

Councilwoman Catherine Foster Rowell, District 1